CHANGE THE WORLD

Do you need help birthing your offer?

You have something that is fighting to be birthed through you - whether that's creating an Ayurvedic coaching academy or a women's empowerment course or a powerful mission to coach magical peeps into their true destiny.

BUT THAT NEW BABY IS STUCK.

She's stuck between the realms and no matter how hard you push, you can't get her into the physical.

Cue months of confusion as you try to figure out how to translate this amazing vision into something you can transmit and sell.

Weeks of frustration as you struggle to nail down this beautiful phantom - and feeling like the more you try to tug at her, the further away she floats.

... and cue not making any money because your offer is so fuzzy and unclear even YOU don't know what your selling, let alone your clients! ARGH!!!!

This is SUCH a common issue! So many spiritual people end up in this place because their skills are in the visionary realm and you have a tough time birthing it into the physical... and you can get stuck in this place for years, never making the impact or income you dream of... or maybe *never even starting.
Gulp.

Let's get you unstuck.

If you are done trying to figure out how the fuck you channel and birth that dream into an actual thing you can sell, then you need a priestess business midwife.

Someone to get hands on and help your Birth your Priestess Offer into the world.

That's exactly what I can help you with.

Here's the Deal

Imagine that in 30 days...

- 🌀 You have channeled that vision into a clear on-paper offer that you can FINALLY sell and share and you know exactly what your healing magic is in this. BOOM. Utter crystal clear clarity in your work, at last.
- 🌀 The outline and full game plan of how to facilitate your class, course or session package, DONE AND DUSTED - your offer is literally ready to go after however many months of frustration and you feel so on fire and lit up about how AMAZING your work is. How good would that feel?
- 🌀 After months of struggling to figure out who the F this offer is for, you now know EXACTLY who it is you are here to help and feel so clear and amazing about that - without deleting your multi-passionate nature in the process.
- 🌀 You have created a BEAUTIFUL sales page that CLEARLY articulates exactly what your magical offer and your personal super powers are, visually shows the vibe of your brand and has a clear, amazing call to action that you can proudly share with all your prospective clients...
- 🌀 AND you know what you are doing next to share and market this work with the world so you can bring in those clients and you are so excited to start!

I promise you, you already have all the goods you need to make this happen - you just need someone to help get you out of your head and translate your spiritual magic into something regular people will understand and be tripping over themselves to get on board with.

And once you get that, all the above will get done - fast.

Introducing your Business Midwife

Hi, I'm Demi!

I am a full time priestess and sacred business owner and my secret superpower is helping other spiritual folk translate their visionary dreams into actual real-world classes, courses and sessions that hugely help and heal the world.

I'm your secret business midwife.

Channeling visionary shit into the physical is my jam.

I also know that this is the stuff that most spiritual folk struggle with the most, and I want you to know that you are TOTALLY not alone in this - and usually all you need is someone on the outside to get you through it, because when you are in it, it's hard to pin down what IT is.

I bring the practical, down to earth, grounded structure to your offering, so it can finally be anchored and made manifest and you can feel super proud of yourself.

I know spiritual entrepreneurs struggle with this side of sharing themselves, and I spent years learning all this business shiz so you do not have to.

Imagine how CLEAR and relieved you will feel in thirty days when that dream that has been niggling you for the last few months and years has FINALLY been birthed into the world.

Pretty fucking great, huh?

I'd been trying to get going with my witchy business for a while but lack of time and confidence kept getting in the way. I kept feeling overwhelmed and uncertain of the right way to go about it. Demi took charge! She listened carefully to what I wanted to achieve and gave gentle but clear advice on how to market myself, which tools to use and how to build a client base. She helped me create my website, recommending various elements and encouraging me to feel confident about my offerings. Demi is unique in that she is witchy and spiritual - so totally gets it all - AND marketing-savvy. She made the whole process great fun!

Wanna talk it over with me first? Email me at rockstarpriestess@gmail.com and we'll chat about it. Our sessions will most likely take place on a Monday or Tuesday, and I am BST time zone (that's London Time).

I have very limited spaces for this work so if you want it, grab it now!

The sales page that Demi helped me with was the first one I ever did for an online course. I got 13 people to join my course without large following, without an email list and with inconsistent messaging!

Demi knows everything about the Goddess world and marketing world and effortlessly weaves them together - she is an invaluable help in this department, as not many people have the same expertise. She successfully merges strategy with energy like nobody else in the market.

AYA FAYE

Working with Demi is a total breath of fresh air compared to other business coaches: she respects your unique gifts and experience, makes the process more joyful, and still holds space for challenges. She is so encouraging of priestesses showing up to do the work they're here to do. Demi gave me permission to take more risks, make something beautiful instead of being so serious & scared, AND show up for myself to do the work (which is not a simple feat!). Demi walks the walk and has proven it can be done!
